

The William Dick Brown Travel Prize

The William Dick Brown Travel Prize

William Dick Brown (1887-1968), from a Dunfermline family, retired in 1949 to live in Dollar after a working life spent in many parts of India and the Far East. He was a great supporter of school activities, particularly rugby and cricket. In his memory, his widow and three sons (all FPs) set up The William Dick Brown Travel Prize Trust in 1970.

The Objective of the Trust is to encourage, and help financially, pupils of Dollar Academy to travel outwith the United Kingdom in order to carry out some personal project which may encompass any field of study, sport or recreation.

Who can Apply – any pupil completing either Form V or VI.

How to Apply – in writing to the Trustees, giving full name, address, date of birth and an outline of the nature and the funding of the proposed project. Originality, practicality and benefit to the applicant will be taken into account.

Applications should be sent in the first instance to the Bursar, to be received by 24 April.

The Award – not less than £1200.

The Award is normally presented at Prize Giving.
